

Sixth Grade Summer Reading List

Required Reading :

Tuck Everlasting by Natalie Babbitt

To live forever—isn't that the stuff of fairytales? Not for the Tuck family who discover a spring of eternal life. When ten-year-old Winnie Foster discovers their secret spring, she is confronted with issues concerning the meaning of life and death. When an unscrupulous stranger also makes this discovery, Winnie must face issues of greed and ethics as well. This sensitively written novel combines adventure, imagination, and real-life issues into a compelling story.

(A total of two books should be completed)

Choose one of the following :

Holes by Louis Sachar

The story about an unlucky boy who goes from loser to hero when he beats the odds (and solves a mystery) at Camp Green Lake, a detention center where he is made to dig holes every day.

Whipping Boy by Sid Fleishman

Maniac Magee by Jerry Spinelli

After his parents die, Jeffrey Lionel Magee's life becomes legendary, as he accomplishes athletic and other feats which awe his contemporaries.

Julie of the Wolves by Jean George

While running away from home and an unwanted marriage, a thirteen-year-old Eskimo girl becomes lost on the North Slope of Alaska and is befriended by a wolf pack. Newbery Medal, 1973